ORDER INSTRUCTIONS FOR UNIVERSITY OF HELSINKI DISSERTATIONS

You can find detailed instructions and all the necessary links on our website: www.unigrafia.fi

1. Template: Prepare the monograph or summary section of an article-based dissertation using the template available on our website. If you are using a different template, ensure that the page layout and fonts follow the instructions we provide. Link to English template

   If you need assistance with formatting, please request a layout service quote from us

2. ISBN and Publication Number: Order the ISBN and publication number via the link on our website if your dissertation is published within the university's doctoral school series. Link. Add the numbers to your title page according to the instructions you receive.

   For other series, consult the editor of that series for instructions.

3. Publishing Agreement for Online Version: Fill in the electronic doctoral dissertation form three weeks before the public examination. You must sign a publishing agreement (https://ethesis.helsinki.fi/files/sopimus-eng.pdf) with the University of Helsinki. You will receive a request to sign the agreement in the UniSign system.

   Unigrafia produces the online version for the University of Helsinki Library, preserving the original links and colors. It will be published in University of Helsinki Repository Helda and the public display version will be made available in the Library terminals.

   Please contact the Library (helda@helsinki.fi) in case of questions regarding the publishing agreement and the availability of the dissertation in Helda repository.

4. Convert to PDF: Save your dissertation as a PDF file and embed all fonts used in the document. Link to instructions. Name the file so that it also includes your name, for example: Matti_Mattila_thesis.pdf.

5. File Management: Save all files to be printed in one folder to facilitate easy uploading. Name the files clearly, such as Matti_Mattila_thesis.pdf, Matti_Mattila_art1.pdf, Matti_Mattila_coverpicture.jpg etc.

6. List the pages you wish to print in color in advance; all other pages will be printed in black and white by default.

7. Print Quantity and Additional Services: Determine the number of copies needed, the color pages, and any additional services in advance. You may use the price calculator.

8. Order Submission: Submit your print order on our website by completing the order form at least 26 days before the dissertation defense date.
